'WINCHMORE'S WORD OF THE WEEK' CHALLENGE - week beginning 15th May:

Word of the Week: Auspicious

Word Class	Adjective
Meaning	Fortunate or favourable
Examples	His brilliant acceptance speech was an auspicious start to his political career. After winning the swimming portion of the triathlon, the athlete seemed well on her way to having an auspicious Olympic debut. As Sarah looked up at the darkening clouds, she realised today was not going to be auspicious for a picnic.
Synonyms for this word	Promising Optimistic Hopeful Well-timed Lucky

What's the challenge? You must use the 'word of the week' in the correct context (where possible) in any of your subjects. If you are able to use it in the correct context (not just going up to your teacher and saying it – has to be relevant to what you are doing), you will get 1 'word of the week' achievement point.

Why are we doing this? To widen our vocabulary, oracy and understanding alongside encouraging a love for literacy across the school (in all subject areas).

Remember: that the student with the most 'word of the week' achievement points in the year group at the end of the half term will receive a voucher!
